

Tim Reede Guitars Guarantee

To the original purchaser, as registered with us, I guarantee your Tim Reede Guitar to be a perfect instrument, structurally and musically. If at any time during your ownership of this instrument, it should develop any defect traceable to faulty workmanship or defective material, I agree to fix the problem or replace the item without cost to the registered purchaser, provided that the instrument is shipped to me with carrying charges paid. This guarantee is valid as long as my life as a guitar maker.

This Guarantee does not cover damage resulting from misuse, accidents, or cracks due to changes in temperature or humidity, nor does it cover normal wear of frets, gold plating, or impairment of tone due to use of improper strings. I do not guarantee cases, tuning machines or pickups, they are covered by their respective manufacturers.
